

APRIL WRITING PROMPTS

April 1: April Fools Day: Were you fooled today? What did someone say or do to you? How would you get back at them? Give us your best trick in the book.

April 2: National Peanut Butter and Jelly Day: Who doesn't love a good peanut butter and jelly sandwich? If you can, make yourself a PB & J and write about how it tastes. Or you can just visualize yourself taking a bite out of the biggest peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Yum!

April 3: National Find a Rainbow Day: Take a look outside and tell us what you see. Maybe it's a rainbow, or maybe a pretty sunset. Describe the landscape.

April 4: Tell a Lie Day: A white lie never hurt anybody, right? Wrong! Think of a time when you told a lie and everything went wrong. What happened? Were you able to fix it on your own?

April 5: Read a Road Map Day: Open up a road map and point to a random place. Write about it.

April 6: National Walking Day: Go for a walk. It can be a short walk or a longer walk. Tell us what you saw and how it made you feel.

April 7: National No Housework Day: We all hate housework, but it's important to keep our homes clean. What would happen if you never did housework again?

April 8: National Zoo Lovers Day: What's your favorite zoo animal?

April 9: National Name Yourself Day: This is a fun one! If you could name yourself, what name would you choose? Why?

April 10: National Siblings Day: Do you have any siblings? Tell us about them.

April 11: National Pet Day: Most of us have had at least one pet during our lives. Tell us about your favorite pet and what made them so special. If you can't think of one, write about a dream pet you've always wanted to have.

April 12: National Grilled Cheese Sandwich: How do you make the perfect grilled cheese? Write a detailed how-to.

April 13: National Scrabble Day: Write down five words that mean something to you and tell us why they are so important. For an extra challenge, try not using nouns.

April 14: International Moment of Laughter Day: Write about a great time that made you laugh.

April 15: Take a Wild Guess Day: Go ahead, take a wild guess. Guess the temperature or the lotto numbers. Were you right?

April 16: National Librarian Day: Tell us about your favorite book and make sure you thank a librarian.

April 17: National Cheese Ball Day: What's your favorite kind of cheese and why?

April 18: National Velociraptor Awareness Day: Get creative and tell us a story about what would happen if the dinosaurs lived on Earth with us?

April 19: Wear Pajamas to Work Day: Maybe you can do this, but if not, put on pajamas as soon as you get home. Get cozy and write about anything you want!

April 20: National Look-Alike Day: Has anyone ever told you you look like someone? Who do you think you look like?

April 21: National High Five Day: What's something you did recently that you deserve a high-five for?

April 22: Earth Day: Describe what the World looks like outside your window.

April 23: Shakespeare Day: Write a play.

April 24: National Pigs in a Blanket Day: What's your favorite appetizer? Is there someone in your life who makes it taste even better?

April 25: National Telephone Day: Pick up the phone and call someone you haven't talked to in a while. Write what you talked about.

April 26: National Pretzel Day: There are so many different ways you can eat pretzels. What's your favorite way to bite into a pretzel? Describe it.

April 27: National Tell a Story Day: Tell us a story about anything. Get creative!

April 28: National Kids and Pets Day: Brag about your kids and/or pets. Or you can brag about yourself!

April 29: National Arbor Day: Have you heard of the phrase "money doesn't grow on trees"? What if you could grow anything on a tree – what would you grow and why?

April 30: National Oatmeal Cookie Day: What's your favorite kind of cookie and why?
