Making occupational therapy tools user-ready for your classroom, homeschool, and clinic.

As a school-based Occupational Therapist, I have worked extensively in classrooms to optimize the learning of both SPED and regular education children. Handwriting instruction and tools to support self-regulation are the heart of my store. My products exemplify universal design and make it easy for teachers and parents to implement research-based educational principles. Find out more on my blog.

I want to thank you for your purchase and hope that you LOVE your new resource! Please take a moment to follow my store so that you will hear of new and discounted products.

Best Wishes, Thia
