Raise your hands up nice and high.

Let's trace letters in the sky.

A's as in apple, draw it tall.

B's got bumps, don't let them fall.

C curves like the crescent moon.

D stands firm like a big balloon.

E has lines reach far and wide.

F is strong with one less side.

G curls in like a happy grin.

H stands tall like a sturdy twin.

I's just one so make it straight.

J's a hook that holds some weight.

K has arms that stretch out wide.

L leans gently side by side.

M looks like two mighty peaks.

N slides down and zig zag streaks.

O is round like a perfect wheel,

P stands tall, it's top reveal.

Q needs a tail to dance around.

R steps forward off the ground.

S is wavy twist and spins.

T stands firm let's begin again.

U curves under nice and neat.

V meets sharply like two feet.

W's a zigzag pair.

X crisscrosses everywhere.

Y's a tree with arms up high.

Z zigzags now wave goodbye.

Letters floating in the air.

Now we've drawn them everywhere.
